STAT 9. [] Met with Mr. Wayne Granquist, Administrative Assistant to Senator Abraham Ribicoff (D., Conn.), concerning a rejected applicant who is interested in knowing the reason for his rejection. Mr. Granquist explained that []

[] they would need at least a letter from us explaining our policy of not informing unsuccessful applicants regarding specific adverse findings. We will work out such a letter with Personnel.

I also met briefly with Senator Ribicoff, mentioning the Director's interest in having him out to the Agency for a briefing. Mr. Ribicoff appeared to be in good humor, admitted that he knew little about the Agency and did not appear to object to my offer to see if we could work out a suitable time on his schedule.

Interest in the matter appears to have died down.

STAT 12. [] Met with Mr. J.R. Blandford, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, who requested such unclassified information as is available concerning a tonnage of goods moved in Vietnam during the last bombing pause. He requested, if possible, that I respond by mid-morning tomorrow.
